D'Italie en France - Marie-José Tramuta 2005

Qu'est-ce que la poésie? Cette question qu'avait formulée Baudelaire dans une des préfaces non publiées des Fleurs du Mal est reprise en filigrane par les seize intervenants de ce volume réalisé sous l'égide du Laboratoire d'Etudes Italiennes, Ibériques et Ibéro-Américaines de l'Université de Caen Basse-Normandie. A travers la réflexion sur le passage des langues mais aussi des cultures, des poètes, traducteurs ou critiques, évoquent l'improbable traversée et la visée éthique qu'elle présuppose. What is poetry? se demandait à son tour Lawrence Ferlinghetti aux confins du monde occidental. La réponse est peut-être à chercher dans le texte d'un poète des idées, Alberto Savinio, publié en 1947, et salué des décennies plus tard par Edoardo Sanguineti, comme un des textes fondamentaux dans l'historiographie du Novecento.

Starring Michelle Monaghan, James Marsden, Luke Bracey, and Liana Liberator "Everyone wanted to believe that endless love was possible. She'd believed in it once, too, back when she was eighteen." In the spring of 1984, high school students Amanda Collier and Dawson Cole fell deeply, irrevocably in love. Though they were from opposite sides of the tracks, their love for one another seemed to defy the realities of life in the small town of Oriental, North Carolina. But as the summer of their senior year came to a close, unforeseen events would tear the young couple apart, setting them on radically divergent paths. Now, twenty-five years later, Amanda and Dawson are summoned back to Oriental for the funeral of Tuck Hostetler, the mentor who once gave shelter to their high school romance. Neither has lived the life they imagined . . . and neither can forget the passionate first love that forever changed their lives. As Amanda and Dawson carry out the instructions Tuck left behind for them, they realize that everything they thought they knew -- about Tuck, about themselves, and about the dreams they held dear -- was not as it seemed. Forced to confront painful memories, the two former lovers will discover undeniable truths about the choices they have made. And in the course of a single, searing weekend, they will ask of the living, and the dead: Can love truly rewrite the past?

The City of The Sun - Tommaso Campanella 2020-10-07

"The City of the Sun" is a philosophical work by the Italian Dominican philosopher Tommaso Campanella. It is an important early utopian work. The book is presented as a dialogue between "a Grandmaster of the Knights Hospitaller and a Genoese Sea-Captain". Inspired by Plato's Republic and the description of Atlantis in Timaeus, it describes a theocratic society where goods, women and children are held in common. One of the most significant aspects of this community is the distribution of work. Once again Campanella engages in an explicit polemic with Aristotle, who had excluded artisans, peasants and those involved in manual labor from the category of full citizenship and from the highest levels of virtue.
