Mummy Portraits of Roman Egypt - Marie Svoboda 2020-08-25

This publication presents fascinating new findings on ancient Romano-Egyptian funerary portraits preserved in international collections. Once interred with mummified remains, nearly a thousand funerary portraits from Roman Egypt survive today in museums around the world, bringing viewers face-to-face with people who lived two thousand years ago. Until recently, few of these paintings had undergone in-depth study to determine by whom they were made and how. An international collaboration known as APPEAR (Ancient Panel Paintings: Examination, Analysis, and Research) was launched in 2013 to promote the study of these objects and to gather scientific and historical findings into a shared database. The first phase of the project was marked with a two-day conference at the Getty Villa. Conservators, scientists, and curators presented new research on topics such as provenance and collecting, comparisons of works across institutions, and scientific studies of pigments, binders, and supports. The papers and posters from the conference are collected in this publication, which offers the most up-to-date information available about these fascinating remnants of the ancient world.

The Horde from Pacific to Atlantic - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of Eurasian and world history. The word "horde" meant "armed people" in old Russian (cf. "order" in English, "ordre" in French, "Orden" in German). The protostate of "Horde from Pacific to Atlantic," or Great Tartary, was a true imbroglio of colonizations, wars, religions covering most of Eurasia in 12-16th centuries. The cathedrals, monuments, fortresses, relics, armours, swords, bibles, saints, warlords, artifacts, chronicles, maps and coins of the "Horde" abound but stay mostly misinterpreted. The European part of the Great Horde fell apart into English, French, German kingdoms in 14-16th centuries.

The Issue With Chinese Astronomy - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of Moscow State University to a breakthrough in the chronology of civilization and China. The Issue With Chinese Astronomy is that it just cannot serve anymore as solid foundation of "ancient" Chinese history. It looks like "ancient" China is a misunderstanding at best. There are many preconceptions concerning the history of China. It is presumed to be exceptionally ancient, a lot more so than European history, and its datings are said to be perfectly reliable. The basics of Chinese chronology are believed to be so firm that it serves as a classical example of an indubitably ancient and reliable chronology. The authors give a brief description of the real situation with Chinese history and chronology as opposed to whatever is advertised. The authors are far from claiming that their reconstruction is complete. The work on the reconstruction of Chinese history has only just begun.

Crusades and Exoduses - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of the civilization. Crusades and Exoduses disentangles the imbroglio of empires, kingdoms, religious wars, dynasties, battles in Eurasia from the point of view of New Chronology theory. Parallels with events in Europe and Middle East are quite abundant. We are being told that after some 1000 years of sound sleep Europeans suddenly woke up as Christians to the hilt, armed themselves, and started touring-crusading Middle East during 200 years to punish at last tormentors of Jesus, searching for the Saint Sepulcher, Grails, spears, and finished their tour with a bang by sacking Constantinople allegedly in 1204 A.D. Local populations became Muslims, crusaded back and built a Caliphate that span from Arabia to Morocco and North Africa. Was it really so?

Maps and Coins Vs. History - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of civilization and its history. Maps and Coins Vs. History shows you that scores of maps and hoards of coins contradict consensual world history and chronology. Maps and Coins

Vs. History questions the numismatics per se. Dr. Fomenko et al. take a close look at maps of 14-18th centuries that confirm the theory of the New Chronology and point to existence of an Empire present nearly over all of Eurasia. They analyze the spread all over Europe of hoards of coins, they note numerous peculiarities like coins of kings and princes minted with Arab and Turkic inscriptions. Why neither the coins, nor maps prior to the 15th century match the consensual history and chronology?

Ancient Egypt - David Pickering 2007

The ancient Egyptians have fascinated and enthralled millions down the centuries. With extensive scientific knowledge, splendid architecture, and many artistic and cultural achievements, their civilization stood apart as being ahead of its time. This compact and informative guide is perfect for all those studying ancient Egypt, visiting the sights, or curious to find out more about this fascinating period. Includes a wide range of topics such as geography, including how the Nile added to the success of their civilization; history, including a timeline spanning 3,000 years from 3100BC to 395AD and covering each dynastic period; religion, including the role of the gods and goddesses, and pharaohs, including Cheops, Nefertiti, and Tutankhamun. The section on life in ancient Egypt details the different levels in society, the jobs, family life, and leisure activities. Learning and knowledge are covered, focusing on the hieroglyphs and the scribes. The armies, weapons, and armor are discussed in the section on war, while funeral rites and mummification are detailed in the section on death in ancient Egypt. Lastly, contemporary Egypt is discussed, including archaeology, discoveries, and what a visit is like today.

Swords and Mantles Tell History - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of Moscow State University to a breakthrough in the chronology of civilization and Eurasia. Swords and Mantles Tell History from the e-series History: Fiction or Science? reports about scores of cases of numerous allegedly unreadable inscriptions on ancient swords kept in European museums, about signs and symbols on coronation mantle of illiterate Charlemagne, etc., etc. Read and find out why! Charlemagne had a formula of governance written on his mantle in Russian (sic!). What a pity he could not read it, therefore his big empire was divided between his three small grandchildren. Good to know foreign languages!

The Issue With Troy - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by late astrophysicist Robert Newton leads MSU mathematicians to a breakthrough in the chronology and history of ancient Greece. The Issue With Troy shows the amazed reader that the whole Troy story was a swindle exercised by German "archeologist" adventurer Schliemann. Indeed, the consensual localization for Homer's Troy is Hisarlik near the Hellespont straits. Herr Heinrich "Indiana" Schliemann used this hypothesis for solemnly baptizing as "Troy" the 100 by 100 meter excavation (with dynamite) site of a minuscule ancient settlement. Soon he announced the finding of gold of Priam artifacts that he himself designed and manufactured by Italian jewelers Bulgari. True name of Troy is Schliemannstadt?

The Issue With Russian Tartary - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of the world history and Eurasia. The Great or Russian Tartary was, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica's 1771 edition, the biggest state in the world! Dr Fomenko et al.

found that: a) there was no such thing as the Tartar and Mongol invasion followed by three centuries of Tartar yoke; b) the so-called "Tartars and Mongols" were the actual ancestors of modern Russians, living in a bilingual state with Arabic spoken as freely as Russian; c) the ancient Russian state was governed by a double structure of civil and military authorities; d) the Horde in old Russian ("Ordre" in French, "Order" in English, "Orden" in German) meant "military state"; e) "invasions" were punitive operations against the regions that attempted tax evasion. This enormous state has disappeared without a trace from all subsequent editions of Britannica. USSR follows suite.

The Issue With Ivan the Terrible - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of world history and Russia. The oversize ominous figure of Ivan the Terrible, with his 7 wives and 4 sons, allegedly ruling from 1530 to 1584, was a collation of 4 different real persons. The official history hides the struggle of dynasties and civil wars of the Great Strife. The first Ivan IV accessed the throne in 1547, when he was barely 16, conquered Kazan in 1552, fell mentally ill and died in 1553. The second Ivan IV (Dimitry, the elder son of the first) inherited the throne, and Russia was ruled by a custodian council of boyars until he died in 1563. The third Ivan IV (second son of the first) inherited the throne, and Russia again was ruled by a custodian council of boyars until his death in 1572. The fourth Ivan IV (Simeon Ivan III) ruled until 1584. The figmental figure of Ivan the Terrible was fed into Russian history by German historians. Guess why?

Witch-Hunting in England - Andrew Pickering 2010

During the sixteenth century, Europe was subject to a fevered and pious wave of witch-hunts and trials. English anti-witch paranoia led to the persecution and execution of a great many individuals, and brought about a large-scale shift in the legal and social culture of the time. However, surprisingly little has been written about this fascinating period of English history, beyond the individual cases of the Pendle witches of Lancashire and the activities of Matthew Hopkins (the 'Witchfinder General') in East Anglia. In this engaging new volume, brothers Andrew and David Pickering address the origins of witch-hunting in England, the methods by which it was conducted, its distribution, its causes and consequences, and its eventual decline. Many differing approaches to the subject are explored, including feminist perspectives, functional explanations and post-modern interpretations, with a strong emphasis on the primary source material, including trial records and contemporary literature such as demonological texts and Royal Society papers. The book is also lavishly illustrated with engravings, maps and location photographs.

The Issue With Baptism of Russia - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

US research of Earth-Moon mechanics by NASA astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU from MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of civilization and Russia. The Issue With Baptism of Russia reports to the readers that there were four baptisms of Russia according to canonical Russian Orthodox Church literature and not just one of 989 A.D. ordered by Prince Vladimir as it is told by schoolbooks for the last 400 years! The Issue With Baptism of Russia consists of chapters that complement and develop the reconstruction of the Russian history from the point of view of the New Chronology as related in the previous books of the History: Fiction or Science? series. The sequence of individual topics is usually of little importance, and the sections can be read in a random order. Every individual issue mentioned below is of interest per se, and can serve as basis for further research.

Astronomy Vs. History - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-05

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of civilization. Astronomy Vs. History dissects every historical age and analyses the data from every source imaginable ?? "Greek and Egyptian chronology take a good beating, and it goes rapidly downhill from there. Almagest that is supposed to have been written in the 2nd century A.D. by Ptolemy dates to 16th century; Tycho Brahe, Ptolemy and Copernicus take the blame for taking part in creation of the legend of a mythical Classical Age that never was and misdating medieval events as very ancient ones. In Astronomy Vs. History we are reminded of the crucial role of eclipses in verifying the dating of major historical events, of stone Zodiacs containing the true dates of such events. Our perception of history begins to change dramatically even before we're through with Astronomy Vs. History.

The Issue With Mongols - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by late astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the consensual chronology and history of Eurasia. The Issue With Mongols is that this small nomad tribe did not know until 20th century how great a power they once were. Nor did Mongols know who Great Genghis Khan was and how he had conquered Eurasia, Russia, China. The "Mongolian Horde" was merely the Russian army. According to the official version of history, Russia remained under the political and military yoke of the Mongols for many centuries on end. The term "Mongol" is usually assumed to have always meant the same thing; however this turns out to be incorrect ?? "the modern interpretation is of a relatively recent origin. Mongolia didn't exist as an independent state until the early 20th century! The word "Mongol" simply meant "the great one," and its association with nomadic tribes hailing from the steppes north of China is a later invention.

The Issue With Czar's Helmet - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of Russia and world history. The Issue With Czar's Helmet from the e-series History: Fiction or Science? asks why the armour of Russian warlords of 14-16th centuries was all covered with Arabic inscriptions from Quran they could not possibly read. Or could they? Russian Czars Alexander Nevsky and Ivan the Terrible wore helmets with Arabic inscriptions. Were the thousands of helmets, swords, sabres, shields, armours with Arabic inscriptions kept in Armoury of Kremlin the rich spoils of war with Arabs, Turks, or presents of their ambassadors to Russian Czars? No, they are neither the spoils of war of victorious Russian Horde troops nor the presents from subjugated kingdoms and princes. They all were made in Russia by Russian craftsmen of 14th-17th centuries.

The Issue With Tamerlane - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of world history and Central Asia. The Issue With Tamerlane reports to the sceptic reader that oversized Tamerlane character reflects actually deeds and traits of two distinct persons. Moreover, not a drop of alleged Genghis blood in neither of them. Tamerlane the Ultimate Warrior was fallacious German collation of Timur Aksak the Iron Cripple of the end of 14th century and Mehmet (Mohammed) II who took Constantinople in 1453 A.D. Timur have allegedly crushed into smithereens Central Asia and Mehmet Byzantine. Too bad, Dr. Fomenko et al. found that the "Tamerlane" myth was injected into Russian history by German historians imported to Russia by Czar Peter I. This book contains enough solid evidence to silence any historian by the sheer power of facts and argumentation. Both Tamerlane ale and cocktail have red hues.

Gobekli Tepe: Genesis of the Gods - Andrew Collins 2014-05-01

An exploration of the megalithic complex at Göbekli Tepe, who built it, and how it gave rise to legends regarding the foundations of civilization • Details the layout, architecture, and exquisite carvings at Göbekli Tepe • Explores how it was built as a reaction to a global cataclysm • Explains that it was the Watchers of the Book of Enoch and the Anunnaki gods of Sumerian tradition who created it • Reveals the location of the remains of the Garden of Eden in the same region Built at the end of the last ice age, the mysterious stone temple complex of Göbekli Tepe in Turkey is one of the greatest challenges to 21st century archaeology. As much as 7,000 years older than the Great Pyramid and Stonehenge, its strange buildings and rings of T-shaped monoliths--built with stones weighing from 10 to 15 tons--show a level of sophistication and artistic achievement unmatched until the rise of the great civilizations of the ancient world, Sumer, Egypt, and Babylon. Chronicling his travels to Göbekli Tepe and surrounding sites, Andrew Collins details the layout, architecture, and exquisite relief carvings of ice age animals and human forms found at this 12,000-year-old megalithic complex, now recognized as the oldest stone architecture in the world. He explores how it was built as a reaction to a global cataclysm--the Great Flood in the Bible--and explains how it served as a gateway and map to the sky-world, the place of first creation, reached via a bright star in the constellation of Cygnus. He reveals those behind its construction as the Watchers of the Book of Enoch and the Anunnaki gods of Sumerian tradition. Unveiling Göbekli Tepe's foundational role in the rise of civilization, Collins shows how it is connected to humanity's creation in the Garden of Eden and the secrets Adam passed to his son Seth, the founder of an angelic race called the Sethites. In his search for Adam's legendary Cave of Treasures, the author discovers the Garden of Eden and the remains of the Tree of Life--in the same sacred region where Göbekli Tepe is being uncovered today.

The Apocalypse As Seen By Astronomy - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of Apocalypse. The astronomical aspect of the Apocalypse stayed hidden for centuries. The Apocalypse as Seen by Astronomy has resurrected the astrological, i.e. astronomical ideas contained in the Apocalypse and extracted from it the precise date of its composition on the Isle of Patmos! St. Augustin was quite right saying, "Beware of mathematicians, especially when they speak the truth!" The only moment on the time axis when the constellations of the night sky visible from the Isle of Patmos correspond to the verbal Zodiac contained in the Revelation date to October 1486 A.D. and not to 56 A.D.! The Apocalypse text was provided to Erasmus by Johannes Reuchlin, his predecessor, founder of hebraism and master astrologist.

The Issue With Dark Ages - Anatoly Fomenko 2016-11-04

NASA research of Earth-Moon mechanics by astrophysicist Robert Newton leads mathematicians of MSU to a breakthrough in the chronology of world history and Europe. It is common knowledge that the Classical Age was followed by many centuries of utter stagnation and decline with virtually nothing happening but wars and famine and the destruction of the priceless ancient monuments. Then, during the Renaissance, the Classical authors reappear from oblivion, Latin and Greek become resurrected as the intelligentsia Esperanto of the Middle Ages, numerous manuscripts reappear from oblivion to be copied, enter wide circulation, and vanish again, never to be found. How preposterous would it be to suggest that there were no Dark Ages to separate the antiquity from the Renaissance and that the "Re-Naissance" was in fact the Naissance of the Western European culture as we know it?
