Easy Persian Reader - Nazanin Mirsadeghi 2016-09-24

The Easy Persian Reader is intended to help learners of the Persian language improve their reading and comprehension skills. This book is suitable for those learners who are at the beginner to intermediate level. Although a basic knowledge of the Persian alphabet such as the ability to recognize, read and write the Persian script is required prior to using this book, a brief overview of the Persian alphabet and the pronunciation of Persian letters have been provided at the beginning of the book. The Easy Persian Reader consists of twelve chapters. Each chapter includes a short reading passage in Persian followed by a series of exercises to develop and test the reader's comprehension of that passage. The passages are accompanied by the transliteration of the Persian sentences. The English translation of all words used in each chapter has been provided at the end of each chapter. The book also provides the key list to the covered exercises.

Elementary Persian Grammar - L. P. Elwell-Sutton 1972

Mr Elwell-Sutton's book provides a simple grammatical framework for contemporary written Persian. It is based on the characteristic idiom and phraseology of the language as it is used in newspapers, magazines and novels. The student is introduced to Persian script from the first lesson. Words are fully vocalized in the early lessons, but vowels are progressively discarded; they are, however, shown in the vocabulary. The letter-forms of printed Persian are used cursive scripts. Although the structure of the language is Mr Elwell-Sutton's immediate concern, he has given close attention to the need for acquiring a workable vocabulary. The examples and exercises thus require only a limited vocabulary of words in fairly common use - about 1500 in all. The student is also given help with pronunciation; at the ends of lessons sample sentences from the exercises are printed with diacritics showing the intonation and stress of each syllable.

At the end of the book there is a key to the lessons.

Iranian Nationality and the Persian Language - Shahrokh Meskoob 1992

In this insightful study of Iranian cultural history and national identity, Shahrokh Meskoob, one of Iran's leading intellectuals, reviews the roles of three social classes, the courtiers and bureaucratic officials (ahl-e divan), the religious scholars (ulama), and the Muslim Gnostics (Sufi poets and writers), in the development and refinement of the Persian language during the past one thousand years and gives the reader a fresh perspective on Iranian cultural heritage and the struggle to forge a distinct national identity. Dr. Ali Banuazizi's foreword and interview with the author sets the stage for a fuller appreciation of this invaluable and wide-ranging contribution to Iranian intellectual history.
